

French Battle Tunisia Troops for Outpost

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

TUNIS (AP)—French and Tunisians fought in the streets of Bizerte today, and Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba ordered seizure of the French pipeline that carries the output of France's Sahara oil field.

Bourguiba said he had ordered his troops to seize the pipeline at Skhiria, in southern Tunisia. The line carries the output of France's Edjele field, 225 miles southeast of the Tunisian border.

The president also called for volunteers from all "brother nations" to help in his desperate fight against France. He said Tunisia's ambassadors in all countries had been ordered to enlist the volunteers and that Libyans and Algerians had already offered their services.

The Tunisian government radio reported that dug-in Tunisian infantrymen and civilian volunteers were battling French paratroopers supported by tanks and rocket planes in the city of Bizerte astride the channel from the Mediterranean to the French naval base at Bizerte.

Radio Tunis said French forces broke out of the besieged Bizerte naval base and launched a pre-dawn attack on the Mediterranean port city three miles away.

Tunisian troops holding the city of 40,000 defied a French ultimatum to evacuate. They were ordered to fight to the death.

The Tunis broadcast said there were "numerous dead and wounded" but Tunisian infantry were holding their own in the heart of the city. Officials estimated 15,000 volunteers in and around the city were bolstering the troops. Many were wearing the red shorts and shirts of the youth section of the ruling Neo-Destour (Freedom) party.

The fighting spread as the U.N. Security Council was called into an emergency session at the request of Tunisia to deal with the mounting crisis. The Tunisians charged France with aggression and demanded the French give up the Bizerte naval base they kept after granting their former protectorate independence in 1956.

The United States showed growing concern over the clash between allied France and friend Tunisia and appealed to both to "end hostilities without delay."

Arab nations lined up behind Tunisia and denounced "French imperialism." President Gamel Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic and the Algerian rebel government based in Tunisia offered troops to fight the French.

FLASH FLOODS HIT CHARLESTON — An upset bathtub appears to be the only thing left intact after more than a dozen homes in Charleston, W. Va., were demolished by a flash flood following a devastating cloudburst. Twelve persons were drowned, some of them trapped in their bedrooms, by 15-foot-high waves. At least four others are missing. — NEA Telephoto

Several New Teachers in Hope System

Several new teachers will be members of the faculty of Hope School District I-A for the 1961-62 school year, James H. Jones, Superintendent of Schools, announced today. They are as follows:

Hope High School — Troy W. Buck, Agriculture; Bobby Whitmarsh, social studies.

Junior High School — Mrs. Betty Beasley, Social Studies; Jim Paulkner, Health, Science, Assistant Coach; Miss Phyllis Rankin, Music Elementary and Jr. and Sr. High Choral.

Brookwood — Mrs. L. F. Slatten Fifth Grade, Mrs. Denver Dickinson has been transferred from the grade school to Jr. High and will teach 7th grade math.

Mrs. Emma Frances Holt has been transferred from the grade school to high school and will teach English.

L. P. Slatten will serve as elementary supervisor of the Hope School System.

New teachers of the Yerger School System are as follows:

High School — Miss Emogene Wallace, Science; George Straughter, Math; Elmo Long, Health and Science.

Hopewell — Miss Arlene McFadden, third; Mrs. Juanita Hart fourth and Mrs. Kathleen Jordan, fifth.

All teaching positions have been filled in Hope School System as of today, Mr. Jones said.

Complete lists of all personnel, with teaching assignments will be announced within a few days for both white and Negro schools.

The youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duke, who were standing nearby, escaped injury.

The older Duke said he was stunned by the lightning and when he recovered, he saw his son lying on the ground.

Jerry Westmoreland, Prescott, an announcer for KXMI, is competing today in a tri-state better speech contest of the FFA in Memphis, he represents Arkansas after winning in Hope, the district at Arkadelphia, and the state at Monticello.

Sheriff Jimmie Griffin left today for Greenville, Texas, to return James Kenneth Pearce, 18, to Hope. He was accompanied by Chief Clark Brown. The youth will be tried here for burglary of The Plaza cafe several weeks ago.

J. Arthur Gray, Jr., has been named superintendent of Emmet

Phone Firm Can Borrow $3 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Public Service Commission has authorized South Missouri Telephone Co. of Mammoth Spring to borrow up to $3.1 million from the federal REA to finance a general modernization and expansion program in Missouri and its north Arkansas area.

Riders Again Pay Visit to Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A team of five "Freedom Riders" split up here Thursday after a bus trip from New York on which they reported scattered resistance to tests of segregated facilities.

Two while rabbits Thursday night flew home to New Jersey to be with their congregations for services today.

The other three, two Negroes and a white college student, remained in Little Rock overnight but one of the rabbits said they probably would fly to New York today.

The group arrived here Thursday afternoon and used facilities at the Greyhound Bus Terminal without incident. They had visited Memphis, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Roanoke, Pa., and Charlottesville, Va. here was no violence.

The calm atmosphere in which they arrived here Thursday and were served at the white waiting room lunch counter was in marked contrast to a Freedom Ride stop here July 10.

After advance publicity on that ride a crowd of 300 white persons met a bus carrying five riders from St. Louis. Four were arrested when they refused to leave the white waiting room. They were charged with threatening a breach of the peace, fined $500 each and sentenced to six months in jail.

The fines and jail terms were suspended on condition that they be employed in the city.

Rape Charge Filed Against Negro Here

Deputy Prosecutor John L. Wilson, today issued the following statement concerning John D. Patrick who is suspected of raping an elderly white woman in the early hours of July 2, 1961:

"After an extensive investigation participated in by City Police, Hempstead County Sheriff's Office and Arkansas State Police, a charge of rape has been filed against John D. Patrick. The Prosecuting Attorney's Office will seek the earliest possible date for the trial of this defendant."

"The law enforcement agencies are to be commended for their close co-operation and splendid work in this matter."

Rebuked JFK's Health Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Education Commissioner Arch Ford today mildly rebuked President Kennedy for urging more emphasis on physical education in schools.

"I don't oppose physical education," Ford said, "but I think the schools should be left to offer what the school boards and administrators think should be offered."

"I don't think too much of political interference from anyone from the president on down in the area of school curriculum. This should be left to professional educators."

Kennedy Wednesday announced plans to contact school administrators across the country because he is concerned about the physical fitness of America's youth.

Ford said most Arkansas schools have an adequate PE program. Such a program is required by law at the high school level. However, most junior highs and many elementary schools have PE classes.

Ford said some small schools have difficulty offering PE because they lack funds to employ trained personnel.

Cities Charge Arkla Data Changed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two cities fighting a $12 million Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. rate increase charged today that the company is trying to introduce evidence contradicting some previously presented.

El Dorado City Atty. J. V. Spencer Jr. and Pine Bluff City Atty. George Holmes said Arkla now claims operating expenses of nearly $4 million, which they said is $2.5 million higher than previously claimed.

The attorneys filed a motion with the Public Service Commission asking dismissal of the new evidence.

The PSC has been conducting hearings in the case. Thursday a utilities rate expert filed a series of exhibits favorably comparing Arkla's Little Rock rates with those of 36 other state capital cities.

The expert, James H. Bomaker, of Frankfort, Ky., was hired by the PSC after two Arkansas cities attacked an Arkla rate increase in 53 cities.

Arkla began rebuttal testimony Thursday. The hearings will resume Monday.

Bruce S. Ford Dies Friday

Bruce Shelby Ford, 61, died today in a Little Rock hospital. He formerly lived in Washington.

Survivors include a son, James Ford of Jackson, Miss., two sisters, Miss Winnie Frances Ford of Midland, Texas, and Mrs. Vernie Myrtle Wilson of Sutherland, Ore.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel. Burial will be in Washington.

Pilkinton Resigns as Prosecutor

James H. Pilkinton today resigned as special prosecuting attorney appointed to assist Prosecutor Royce Weisenberger in trying persons indicted by the grand jury.

All of the persons indicted by the grand jury have been tried except L. E. Polcel. Former Judge U. G. Garrett was acquitted in two trials, a mistrial was declared in the case against Mrs. Wanda Grinnell.

Mr. Pilkinton served without compensation when Deputy Prosecutor John L. Wilson disqualified himself.

In his letter of resignation to Mr. Weisenberger, Mr. Pilkinton said:

"The greatest compensation that any of us can receive from our services in this regard, I think, is the knowledge that what we have done is right and that we have endeavored to make this county a better place in which to live in the future. I came into the criminal cases only because of the disqualification of Mr. Wilson, who, by the way, later testified as a character witness for one of the defendants whom you and I were attempting to prosecute, and I now feel that it is time to turn the whole responsibility of the office back to Mr. Wilson."

"In addition to the above, there are several civil suits, pending in the Hempstead Chancery Court which I will have to try on behalf of citizens who financed the (special) audit, and my time will be needed to properly prepare those cases if it is necessary to try them. It is my understanding, however, that most of these cases will be settled and that the money or property in question will be repaid to the county."

Tabernacle to Change Church Name

For the past 27 years the congregation which worships at the corner of North Main and West Avenue D has gone by the name of the Hope Gospel Tabernacle. Its official affiliation has been with the Assemblies of God with headquarters at Springfield, Mo.

By a vote of the membership, the name of the church has been officially changed to the First Assembly of God church of Hope. This action will bring the name into conformity with other churches of the Assemblies of God.

Locally, the church will probably be referred to by many as the Tabernacle, but for its worldwide ministry, the new name will be adopted.

Will Not Join Municipal Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Little Rock and North Little Rock have turned down invitations to an organizational meeting of a southern municipal association. One aim of the proposed group is to provide a lobby in Washington for Southern cities. North Little Rock Mayor W. F. Laman said he was willing to let the state's congressmen look after their needs.

Reports JFK to 'Freeze' Guards in Camp

NEW YORK (AP)—President Kennedy was reported ready today to ask Congress to freeze six National Guard divisions on active duty indefinitely because of the Berlin crisis.

Warren Rogers Jr., in a Washington dispatch to the New York Herald Tribune, also wrote that the President is prepared to ask Congress to increase the Army's manpower limit to 975,000, from the present 875,000.

The 11 National Guard divisions now on their annual two week's training are:

26th Infantry (Massachusetts), training at Camp Drum, N.Y., July 22-Aug. 5.

28th Infantry (Pennsylvania), Camp A. P. Hill, Bowling Green, Va., July 15-29.

31st Armored (Tennessee), Ft. Stewart, Ga., July 16-30.

36th Infantry (Texas), Ft. Hood, Tex., July 16-29.

35th Infantry (Kansas-Missouri), Camp Ripley, Minn., July 23-Aug. 6.

38th Infantry (Indiana), Camp Grayling, Mich., July 23-Aug. 6.

Guard division may be frozen if the President or Congress declares a national emergency or if Congress passes a joint resolution extending indefinitely all officer appointments and enlistment terms.

Board Finishes Processing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock School Board has finished processing reassignment requests of 15 Negro students, but probably won't announce decisions on them until next week.

So said School Board President Everett Tucker Jr. Thursday after a lengthy closed-door session Thursday. Fifteen Negroes wish to transfer from all-Negro to formerly all-white schools.

Tucker would not say whether any more Negroes will be added to the 49 already assigned to formerly all-white junior and senior high schools.

Will Be 100 Years July 24

MONDAY, JULY 24, H. W. HALL OF NEAR HOPE, WILL be 100 years old and he's about the youngest looking and acting man of his age anywhere. Mr. Hall came to Hope 32 years ago from his native Columbia County. He has farmed all his life and work, he does anywhere he has and proved it by coming into the Star office by himself to have this picture taken.

Sunday from 1 to 6 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have invited in neighbors and friends for refreshments.

Mr. Hall attributes his longevity to an old proverb, "Never take more trouble on your heart than you can kick off at your heels."

Autos Recovered by Officers

In the past two days two autos were stolen in Hope and both have been recovered.

One car didn't get over three blocks. Officers said two Negroes and perhaps three took C. H. Beavers' car at his store on old Highway 67 East. They had traveled only a couple of blocks when they sighted the police car, jumped out and ran while the car was still in motion. One stayed and stopped the vehicle. Officers are holding Theodos Lindsey, 23, and Columbus Leath, 18.

Jimmy Brasher's auto which was stolen Wednesday night was recovered by State Policeman Earl Orr at Gurdon.

Bell Leaving Christian Church Here

Rev. Clifton Bell, pastor of First Christian Church for the past two years, has accepted the position of Arkansas State Chaplain of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The part-time job demands his immediate attention so he is leaving the local pastorate but will be available for supply and ad interim work anywhere in the state.

A retired army chaplain, Rev. Bell began his work with the C. G. camps in Iowa. He continued his service with the army during World War II, having been stationed at Pearl Harbor when it was attacked December 7, 1941. During and after the war he served aboard troop carriers, crossing the Pacific 42 times and the Atlantic 12 times. He also sailed in the Arctic Circle for six weeks.

His service ribbons include those for World II, Victory, American Defense, National Defense, Asiatic and Pacific, Philippine Liberation, Philippine Independence, European Occupation, 20 Years Service, United Nations, Korean, and Commendation for Meritorious Service.

Mrs. Bell will continue teaching in the Texarkana schools as her husband's duties will take him over the entire state. Though his headquarters will actually be in Little Rock, his permanent address will remain in Springdale, as it has been during his army service.

Hits 5310 mph Then Almost Drowns at Sea

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Astronaut Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom safely took a 5,200 mile an hour ride into space today, then had to swim for his life as his capsule sank in 2,800 fathoms (16,000 feet) of water.

Grissom blew his escape hatch and left the sinking capsule in the manner all astronauts had been taught in their rigorous training.

After swimming about 70 feet, Grissom was picked up by a helicopter two minutes after his escape from the capsule. Attempts to recover the spacecraft failed as it plummeted to the bottom.

"Give me something to blow my nose. My head is full of sea water. America's No. 2 space man said when he was deposited on the deck of the aircraft carrier Randolph. Otherwise, he was reported in good condition.

Grissom rode 118 miles high on the nose of a Redstone rocket and 303 miles down the Atlantic missile range. And he looked down on a view so fascinating he forgot momentarily that he had chores to perform during the 15-minute journey.

President Kennedy watched on television with millions of other Americans as Grissom followed the space trail blazed May 5 by astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr. Then he expressed "great pleasure and satisfaction" in a telephone call to Grissom on the Randolph.

The 35-year-old Air Force captain had flown higher (two miles), farther (one mile) and faster (by 100 miles) than Shepard.

His petite wife, Betty, who also sat glued to a TV screen at Newport News, Va., disclosed also that he "achieved a first."

She and their sons, Scott, 1, and Mark 7, "talked by telephone to Gus as he lay flat on his back in the capsule before it was launched," she said.

National space agency officials said there had been indications that if good data were obtained by Grissom's flight, two additional suborbital flights on the schedule might be eliminated. Now, it was reported, at least one more such shot would almost certainly be made, and perhaps even an empty capsule will be flown over the same up-and-down course, before proceeding with orbital flight.

Shepard told newsmen Grissom "sprung sort of a big leak. It was coming in through the door."

After making his escape from the doomed space ship, Grissom was not in danger of sinking. His flight suit was buoyant. But he did go under water briefly in the wake of the rescue helicopter's spinning blades

Funny Dream

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—I dreamed the other night that my wife remarried — this time to an elephant.

It's not too hard to figure out why an ordinary husband would have a dream like this.

One of the most vexing things about most wives to most husbands is their inordinate memory.

No machine, fed endless information on tape, can match the total recall born in wives. The many incidents of ordinary living that don't register at all in a husband's mind—and others that he wisely chooses to regret and forget—stay in a wife's mind at her immortal beck and call.

A wife cannot simply forget to remember.

Well, anyway, I had this odd dream the other night. I had passed on to the remembrance of a grateful posterity. My wife, after counting the insurance and a suitable period of quiet jubilation, married an elephant.

Many of her friends thought this was rather an unusual choice as the elephant wasn't, as elephants go, an outstanding character. But those who best knew Frances, my wife, realized the reason—the elephant to her bore a sentimental resemblance to her first husband. And he had an added virtue: He didn't drink martinis.

"The best headstand you did, Jumbo," said Frances, pausing in her knitting, "was before those 10,679 fans in Omaha on August 12. It was such a hot night. You were simply magnificent. And I was so proud of you."

Reaching boredly out for another peanut, Jumbo replied: "You have it all wrong, kid. The best headstand I did was in Kansas City on August 1 before 12,435 people."

"Incidentally, we played in Omaha on August 13—not August 12—before a lousy crowd of 3,819, my foot slipped and I fell on my back, and it rained that day and the highest temperature was 67 degrees."

"Can't you get anything straight?"

"Sorry, dear," said Frances. "So it went, night after night. Elephants in winter quarters like to recall the previous season. But every time Frances tactfully attempted to bolster Jumbo's ego with some remembrance he would say: "It didn't happen that way—it happened this way. Can't you ever get anything straight? What's the matter with your mind?"

Finally, one evening, Frances broke into tears and said: "Living with a husband with a perfect memory is just too much for a woman. I wish I had my first husband back."

"Well, kid," sneered Jumbo, with an air of mock sympathy as he reached out with his trunk and patted her on the shoulder, "it's a little bit late to be thinking of that, isn't it?"

Right about then my dream ended. Blinking in the morning sunlight, I awoke and looked across at my wife.

"You got home rather late last night," said Frances. "Just where were you?"

"I forget," I mumbled. "You forget awfully easily," she said. "Sometimes I wish I had married an elephant. They never forget."

On Wednesday, July 19, the '47 Friendship Club met with Mrs. Bonnie Beckworth. The hostess had the scripture reading, which was followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. D. E. Farris won the surprise package. Where bingo was played prizes were won by the following: Mrs. C. G. Tittle, Mrs. Y. C. Coleman, Mrs. R. P. Hogue, Jr., Mrs. Rachard Hogue, Jr., and Mrs. Farris. A dessert plate and punch were served for refreshments.

On Tuesday night, July 18, the Hope Jaycees and Jaycettes held their annual family picnic at Fair Park. There were 14 couples and their children present for this occasion which everyone enjoyed.

Seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers, and standards of white gladioli with white satin bows and streamers flanked a white satin prayer bench to provide the setting when Miss Martha Stuckey and Jimmy Chambless exchanged their wedding vows at First Baptist Church of Monticello on Sunday, July 16.

Jade greenery and branched candelabra holding burning white tapers formed the altar background. Pews were marked with white satin ribbon and white tulle.

Miss Stuckey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Stuckey of Monticello. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Reese Chambless of Hope.

Rev. Franklin Shepard, pastor of the Pauline Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock.

Nuptial music was presented by Miss Marilyn Culp of Warren, organist, and Mrs. A. B. Crawley of Monticello, soloist.

Candles were lighted by Miss Mackye Long, cousin of the bride, of Pine Bluff, and Miss Sue King, cousin of the groom, of Hope. They were dressed in blue tulle organza over cotton satin and wore wristlets of blue tulle with silver pendants and pearl ornaments.

Miss Lynn Robinson, flower girl, also wore blue silk organza over cotton satin, and a headpiece of blue velvet caught on either side with stephanotis and silver tulle puffs.

Ushers were Dwight Shelton of Crossett, Marvin Herman of Stamps, Artie Harris of Monticello and Charlie Harris of Crossett. Mr. Chambless served his son as best man.

Miss Stuckey, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over tulle. The skirt, enhanced with a lace drape which fell from the back waist to form a bustle-effect swept into a full train. Re-embroidered lace appliques were scattered over the skirt. The fitted bodice of lace featured a scoop neckline outlined with lace medallions and seed pearls, and the long sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Her veil of silk illusion, over which appliques of lace were scattered, fell in the fall.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Hot Springs and the northern part of the state, the couple will make their home at College Heights where both will attend Arkansas A. & M. College in the fall.

For travel, the bride chose a beige linen dress with matching jacket and beige accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Inventor Left
Very Little

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. Lee de Forest, whose invention of the three-element vacuum tube helped spawn the vast electronics industry, left only $1,250 in cash.

Dr. De Forest's will was filed for probate Wednesday by his fourth wife, former actress Marie Masquini. The famed inventor died June 30 at 87.

Mrs. De Forest's attorney said her husband held patents which could yield further income, but they are not doing so now.

The will, signed in 1954, left all property to Mrs. De Forest except for bequests of $1 each to three daughters.

Liz Undergoes
Plastic Surgery

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor is reported in good condition after plastic surgery to remove a one-inch-long scar on her throat.

The operation was performed Wednesday and a spokesman said the actress is expected to leave Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in about four days.

The scar was a souvenir of Miss Taylor's near-fatal bout with pneumonia in London earlier this year. Surgeons performed a tracheotomy to ease her breathing.

from a star-shaped coronet of satin and silk organza. Her bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley and stephanotis surrounding a golden-throated orchid tied with a cascade of white satin streamers in love knots with stephanotis, topped a white prayer book. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Freddie Stuckey, sister of the bride and maid of honor, and Miss Judy McKenney and Miss Mildred Hancock, bridesmaids, wore identical street-length frocks of blue silk organza over cotton satin, with headaddresses of blue veiling with seed pearls. They carried blue satin-covered bride's rings with matching satin bows, blue Fuji mums, tiny pearl ornaments and silver tulle puffs.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stuckey wore a frock of dusty rose lace with beige accessories and a corsage of beige cymbidium orchids with brown tulle and brown ribbon.

Mrs. Chambless, mother of the groom, wore a blue eyelet dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids with deep pink tulle and tied with matching ribbon.

Mrs. Freddie Long of Pine Bluff had charge of the bride's book which was placed on a table at the church entrance. Centering the white satin-covered table was a white memory candle trimmed with lilies of the valley.

DOROTHY DIX

In-Laws Dubbed Her
"Pennyles"

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: You give good advice to so many I find myself turning to you now. My husband's parents precked our marriage because I didn't bring him the wealth they expected. Never, in all our 15 years of married life, have they called me by my real first name. Instead they address me as Pennyless! At my insistence we moved into a tiny home of our own just before our first baby was born. We now have four children. When they were small my husband and I lived like two strangers. The neighbors started talking. For the children's sake I moved to a different town. He stayed behind. The children and I had just six dollars to our names. I look in sewing (being a good seamstress). My husband occasionally sends us a bit of change but what's that with four young ones to support? The Welfare had skins as the 1 create s to? I feel like I'm 87 and as I feel I would kill myself. Help me, if you can. —Despairing Wife, Alta, Canada.

Dear Despairing Wife: Apparently you are concerned lest your husband discontinue whatever money he is now sending. If this should happen you need only go to the Family Court in Edmont. While the function of a Family Court is to try and patch up broken marriages, it has full court powers. Among other local agencies to which you might turn are The Family Service Bureau and the Canadian Mental Health Association, both located in The Tower Building, Edmonton. Suicide is no solution. Certainly, your life has been hard but—trouble comes to us all in one form or another. And there are always compensations—in your case, the children. Read my leaflet, "Women At Work" which goes to you today. It contains further suggestions for earning money in the home.

SUSPENSETTE

A Short Short Story

A gun was found in a snowdrift.

SEVEN LITTLE FINGERS

By JOYCE TAYLOR

It was not a matter of insufficient evidence, but a case of too many clues. That was the conclusion of Detective Berkley when he investigated the slaying of Henry Wye, a wealthy clothespin manufacturer.

The heavy-set butler had a black eye, and admitted that he had quit his job and had been popped in the eye by his master prior to the murder.

The tall athletic chauffeur had been embezzling gasoline money, but he denied murdering Mr. Wye.

The maid had discovered Mr. Wye's body and had summoned the butler. He, in turn, had called the police.

The husky maid, who had once been a masseuse, said she would have liked to kill Wye many times because of the way he treated Mrs. Wye, but the maid denied giving in to her impulse.

Mrs. Wye, who had been in ill health, was not at home. She had left before the snowstorm and had not returned. The detective found there were no tracks in the fresh snow outside the house, therefore the murderer was still in the house.

The first break came when a gun was found in a snowdrift beneath a window of the study, where the slaying occurred. It was an old double-action revolver with a trigger spring so stiff that Berkley could hardly pull it. Examination disclosed the prints of five fingers and two thumbs.

"My opinion is that the person who pulled the trigger of this gun held it in both hands. The trigger action is stiff," said the expert.

minutes after he landed to complete a check of instruments inside the vehicle.

An Associated Press reporter aboard the Randolph sent word Liberty Bell 7 splashed on the surface at 7:30 a.m., not far from the prime recovery ship.

Calling on his many years of experience as a combat and test pilot, Grissom performed a variety of tasks on the pulse-pounding flight.

For brief periods, he controlled the two-ton space ship by switching its roll, pitch and yaw. Throughout the flight Grissom, of Mitchell, Ind., radioed assurances that his condition was good and that all capsule systems performed normally.

"A-OK, A-OK," he messaged several times, space agency officials reported.

As the Redstone rose, the pilot reported:

"The sun is really bright."

Through his 19-inch "picture window", he reported seeing the east coast of the United States but was unable to identify landmarks because of the bright sun.

Nine minutes after launch, as his space craft re-entered the atmosphere, he reported: "I feel very good. Everything is looking good."

Shouting encouragement to Grissom from the ground was the astronaut who preceded him to the threshold of infinity. Shepard was at the vital capsule communication post in the control center.

The two fellow astronauts maintained almost constant voice communication throughout the flight.

However, communication with the Liberty Bell 7 was troublesome at two periods—once when the radio frequency was switched from ultra high to high frequency. The other time was when the spacecraft passed over the horizon down range and Mercury officials reported difficulty in hearing him.

The flight was almost as perfect as Shepard's. Shepard traveled 116 miles high and 302 miles downrange in 15 minutes.

The success gives the United States two spacemen to the Soviet Union's one. Both Grissom and Shepard gained valuable experience for later orbital missions—a feat already accomplished by Yuri Gagarin of the Soviet Union. Gagarin circled the globe once at a maximum altitude of 187 miles at a speed of more than 17,000 miles an hour last April 12.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration hopes to orbit an American late this year or early in 1962.

The Redstone rocket blasted off at 7:20 a.m. following three holds. In the countdown. One was to check out a system in Liberty Bell 7. A second brief hold was called to remove floodlights from the launch area. And a third 40-minute hold was called at 6:25 to allow some clouds to pass from the Cape area.

At the time of launch, Grissom had been inside the spacecraft three hours, 22 minutes.

During this time he was reported calm, cool and collected.

The 83-foot Redstone roared into the skies under the watchful, anxious eyes of hundreds of newsmen, thousands on the beaches to north and south, and millions more who viewed the blazing takeoff on nationwide television.

Similar open coverage of the Shepard launching, in contrast with the secrecy which surrounded Gagarin's trip earned the United States plaudits from around the world.

As the slender white rocket penetrated the cold air of the upper atmosphere, its whiteluffy vapor trail was twisted into a strange serpentine pattern by winds aloft.

Another vapor trail was visible high in the sky as astronaut Leroy S. Cooter Jr., sped overhead in an F106 jet to observe the launch from above.

Inside the capsule, Grissom was pressed back against his contour couch by force he said reaches six times the pull of gravity.

It was during this period that Grissom reported the bright sun. At 141 seconds after launch, the bell-shaped, nine-foot tall capsule separated from the rocket, and the escape tower designed to pull the spacecraft free of the rocket in case of trouble was jettisoned.

Automatic controls then turned the capsule around slowly 180 degrees so the blunt heat shield base led the way with Grissom riding upright and backwards.

At the peak of his ballistic trajectory, Grissom entered a weightless world for about five minutes. If he had not been

In all, the U.S. has launched 45, Russia 12. Not listed above are the nearly 30 Discoverer satellites sent up from the west coast as part of a program to recover orbiting instruments. In deep space, one Russian and two U.S. probes continue to circle the sun. Another Russian probe passed close to Venus early this year.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the 8th Federal Reserve District the week ended July 15 were the same as the comparable week of last year, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis reports.

The Louisville area rose 11 percent and St. Louis went up 1 percent. Little Rock dropped 11 percent, Memphis was down 9 percent and sales in seven smaller district cities fell 4 percent.

Sales for the four week period ending July 15 were down 4 percent from the same four weeks of 1960.

Department store sales to date are down 1 percent from the Second place Los Angeles aimed four home runs for a 10-1 tie at Cincinnati Thursday, shaving the Reds' National League lead to 1½ games with a fifth straight loss. The Dodgers swept the two-game series thumping first Bob Purkey, Joey Jay, the two aces of Reds' pitching staff.

San Francisco clung to third with a 10-6 victory at St. Louis, ending the Cards' winning streak at five while fourth-place Chicago beat the Chicago Cubs behind the four-hit pitching outpouring Joe Gibbon. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 5-1.

The American League, Detroit crushed Baltimore 15-8 and ninth place by one percentage point over New York, and out-slugged Boston 11 in the only other AL game ended.

Duke Snider, Willie Davis, Billy Moon and Norm Larker, left-handed swingers, did the mping for the Dodgers against y (13-5). Singles by Maury Iles and Moon, who drove in three runs, and Snider's homer "rapped it up in a four-run third inning. Southpaw Sandy Koufax (12-6) was the winner.

San Francisco blew a 6-0 lead when Bill White's three-run double tied it for the Cards in the sixth inning. But the Giants then broke loose for four runs in the eighth on Harvey Kuenn's tie-breaking double and Willie Mays' 28th homer. That hung the defeat on reliever Lindy McDaniel (6-4). Rookie Dick LeMay (2-2) won it in relief.

Jerry Kindall had two of the Cubs' hits, both doubles, off Gibbon (6-4), who gave up three walks but struck out nine for his first major league shutout. Dick Stuart doubled home a first-inning run for the Pirates, and they added two more in the fourth on Bill Mazeroski's single off losing lefty Jack Curtis (6-4).

Joe Adcock hit his 10th home run and also had one of the Braves' three singles in a three-run first inning that beat Chris Short (3-2). Rookie Bob Hendley (3-2), a left-hander, shut out the Phils after Don Demeter homered in the first inning.

Another Edition Given Away

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Tropical storm Brenda dumped more than 12 inches of rain on Florida the last time the St. Petersburg Independent gave away its "sunshine" edition of the paper.

That was July 29, 1960. The Independent gave another edition, the 212th, away Wednesday when the sun failed to shine on the Independent building for 24 hours.

The paper started the practice in 1910 to promote St. Petersburg as the "Sunshine City."

Liquor Men Are Against Rates

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Commerce Commission said Wednesday that seven Little Rock wholesale liquor distributors have protested a proposed increase in intrastate truck freight rates. A hearing on the rate increase is scheduled by the Commerce Commission Tuesday. The truckers want authority to boost minimum rates from $2.56 to $3.08 and to increase weight-distance mile rates.

Our grim-faced TV cowboys would no more break into song than wear lace pants. But home-made music was one of the rare pleasures of the old West. Cowboys liked to give old tunes new words to fit their own outfit or section. You'd hear 30 different versions of a song between Idaho and Texas.

Riders Again

leave the state without further tests of segregation.

Rabbi Sidney Shanker, Cranbrook, N.J., and Rabbi Herman Stern of River Edge, N.J., flew home a few hours after the latest group arrived in Little Rock. Rabbi Stern called The Associated Press in Memphis from the Memphis airport. He said he had learned a great deal first hand about segregation in the South.

"We feel it degrades both the Negro and white populations," he said. "We think there are many white people in the South who want to end segregation, but for one reason or another will not stand up for their ideas."

He said the other three riders would fly home today.

Thomas, a lanky 19-year-old field secretary for the Congress of Racial Equality, said in one respect the Freedom Riders have failed.

"We're trying to make it possible for everyone to get served and use bus facilities," he said. "Not just Freedom Riders." He added that this is not yet possible.

Thomas has been in and out of jail seven times in connection with anti-segregation demonstrations. Asked if he thought he might be arrested again, he said, "I understand they have new jail space at Jackson, Miss., and I'm ready, willing and able."

He was one of the original group of riders whose bus was burned at Aniston, Ala., and he spent 45 days in jail at Jackson and was released only two weeks ago.

He said he was arrested six times while participating in sit-in demonstrations in Washington while a sophomore at Howard University. That was before he became involved in the Freedom Rider movement.

The other two riders who remained with Thomas in Little Rock are Woolcott Smith, a white Michigan State University student from Vineyard Haven, Mass., and John Harvard of Elizabeth, N.J., a Negro.

Negroes have used white facilities at bus stations here in the past, although separate rest rooms, lunch counters and waiting rooms still are maintained.

Thomas' group used all those before leaving the station in a taxi. The three spent the night with friends here.

Autopsy Ordered in Woman's Death

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—An autopsy was ordered to determine the cause of death of a Negro woman whose body was found on a path near here Wednesday. Coroner George MacDonald ordered the autopsy on the woman, identified by sheriff's officers as Mrs. Lucille Arberry, about 39, of Benton. Officers said the body bore no marks of violence.

Claims Revolt Is Crushed

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP)—The government says it has crushed a Communist-led revolution plot timed to erupt on the July 26 anniversary of the Castro movement in Cuba. A communique said a large quantity of Marxist propaganda was seized when government forces moved against the plotters Wednesday. Unofficial sources said several men were arrested.

Detroit Regains 1st Place Over Idle Yankees

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers moved back on top in the American League race by thumping Baltimore 15-8 Thursday for a one-percentage point edge over idle New York.

Cleveland out-slugged Boston and no other games were scheduled in the National League, second-place Los Angeles rapped Cincinnati 10-1 for a two-game sweep that shaved the Reds' lead to 1½ games. San Francisco beat St. Louis 10-6, Pittsburgh defeated Chicago Cubs 4-0 and Milwaukee beat Philadelphia 5-1.

The Tigers twice came from behind against the Orioles before ripping a 6-6 tie with eight runs in the seventh. Rocky Colavito drove in five runs with a pair of homers, the second a three-run shot in the big seventh. Jim Gentile hit two home runs for the Birds. Hal Woodeshick 4-3) was the winner in relief and Steve Barber (10-4) the loser.

Jim Piersall and Tito Francona drove in seven runs between them for the Indians and paired for consecutive home runs in a four-run seventh inning that beat the Red Sox. Boston, down 3-2 after five innings, had taken the lead with five runs in the top of the seventh. Bobby Locke (3-0) won it and Billy Muffett (2-10) lost it, both in relief.

U. S. Track Team Sorely Crippled

LONDON (AP)—"How," mused Jumbo Jim Elliott today, "can one track team wind up with so many injuries? I'm just amazed."

Elliott, head coach of the United States track team that took on Great Britain at White City Stadium today and Saturday in its third international meet in a week, had to make four substitutions for his injured men going against Great Britain.

The hospital list reads like this:

1. John Fromm, javelin thrower from Seattle—out with a pull in his side.
2. Bill Sharpe, hop, step and jumper from Philadelphia—out with a bad leg.
3. John Uelses, pole vaulter from the Quantico Marines—out with a bad leg.

4. Paul Drayton, sprinter from Villanova—out with a pull in his leg.

5. Jerry Siebert, half-miler of Santa Clara, Calif.—ailing with a cold and a bad knee but ready to start the half-mile.

Dave Edstrom will take the place of Fromm in the javelin. Chuck Frazier will substitute for Drayton in the 100 and Earl Ralph for Drayton in the 220. Ralph Boston or Cliff Cushman will replace Sharpe in the hop, step and jump, and Paul Herman will take over for Uelses in the pole vault.

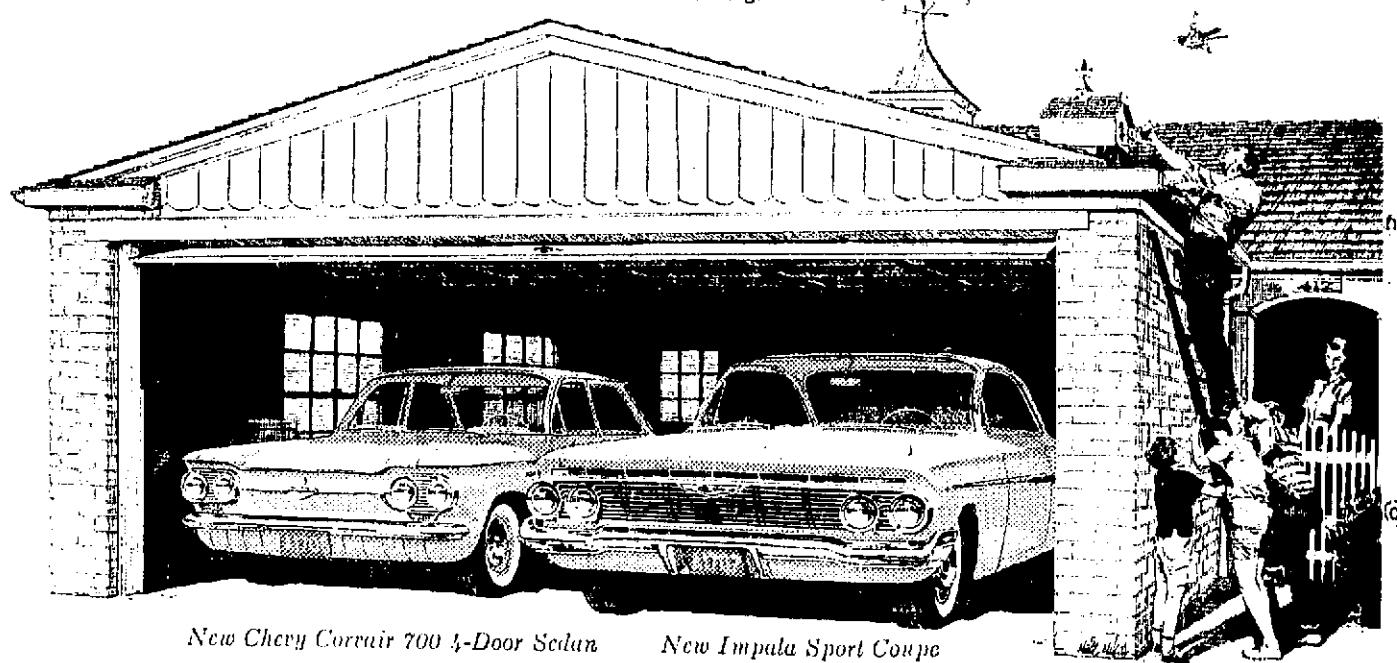

Speculation centered then on the possibility of early induction into federal service of a few Guard divisions together with individual members of specialized units of the ready reserves.

The ready reserves total more than a million men. A substantial part, the Pentagon says, can move out quickly when mustered into federal service.
